I believe Nathan and Sheba came from North Carolina to Kentucky - One of their daughters, Rachel, married Solomon Rhoads in Logan County, Ky. This daughter, Rachel, was born in 1779 and, according to one record, came with her parents from North Carolina. Any help you can give me in identifying Sheba's father, I shall truly welcome. She, I know, was an "own" cousin of Danl. and "related to old governor Johnston" - this relationship, obviously was on the Johnston side. Could she have been related to Gov. Thos. Boone of South Carolina, I wonder? Her father must have been a brother of Danl's father. (Squire B.)

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

Your compilation of abstracts of Cole of Wright & will have been of more help to me in tracing my Johnston ancestral line than have any other sources available to me.

I am very eager to trace my relationship to the Johnstons, from whom I feel confident I am descended, and wonder whether you will assist me! And, if so, at what cost? Please let me know.
My great grandfather,
John Johnston, was the son

Cabells will be recorded in Will Book 3, p. 345. He died, Sept. 24, 1732.
Abraham will be recorded in WTB 8, p. 410, recorded March 7, 1776.
Nathan Sis will be recorded in Will and Accounts Book 10, p. 184, Sept. 6, 1790 I am especially interested in proving relationships to these Revolutionary Captains who served in the first Regiment of the Va. Continental Line: Capt. John Boussee Johnston, or Capt. William Johnston.

My conjectures are that, when you trace my correct line from Nathan, Jr., who died in 1809?
The enclosed clips of data may be an incentive or a help to you.
Please know that I am sincerely and deeply interested in completing this line - even farther back than Cabell, if that has to be done. And I shall appreciate whatever help you may be able to give me - Sincerely yours,
(signed) Edwin Patrick Nutter

<sup>2</sup> of Nathan Johnston (in some of the records, spelled Johnson, but my grandmother, Elizabeth, daughter of John, indicated on the to). Nathan Johnston married Shady Boone - an "own cousin" of Daniel Boone.
They migrated to Logan County, <sup>about 1797</sup> Kentucky, where Nathan died.

<sup>(Shady Boone)</sup> in 1809. Shady (Noble?) died 1835.
I find that in sale of Wright Co., Virginia, a Nathan Johnston, son of William Johnston, had a son Nathan whose will is not recorded in the sale of Wright Co.
records - I believe the Nathan Johnston of sale of Wright Co. was the father of my great, great grand father, also Nathan Johnston.<sup>3</sup> That means that Abraham was my great great, great, great grandfather. Robert Johnston, brother of Abraham (Abner) must have been my great great great, great, great grandfather - I have copies of the will of Nathan, Abner, & Robert, from the sale of Wright county records.

The sons of Nathan <sup>and Shady</sup> were

Johnston were: John, James, Aaron, Joseph, Abraham, and Aaron.
I know my great grandfather, John Johnston, had a son Robert who was named for John's kinman, living in the early part of the nineteenth century - a college bred man (Robert) - lived in Kentucky.
Can you help me please my lineage descent, please?
And, can you site Revolutionary service for Abraham or Nathan, Sr.?
